To The Family of Barbara Smith. Our sincere condolances to you at the loss of your loved one. We had met her a couple of times when she brought her mother, Marge Walker, up to Marion Indiana for the Shaw reunion. We will not be able to come down for the viewing or the funeral, but we will keep you in our prayers. We are 2 second-cousins of Barbara. Our sincere sympathy. Love & Prayers from Elta Mae Shaw Stinger and Martha Ellen Shaw Swain, Marion, Indiana. We are daughters of Charles Shaw.

Tina, I'm so sorry. I have thought of Barb so often. I always enjoyed what time we spent together. You are Mother and Daughter, but you were also best friends....that says a lot of you both. May God's grace bring comfort to you and all your family.

I shall miss you and miss the things we could have enjoyed together. It was a true pleasure knowing you and I will treasure the good times we shared together. I will miss our "talks" and advice sessions that we used to have! You leave us only in physical form and I know that you are at peace and share the serenity amongst your loved ones.
Love you and God Bless. Debbi Walker
