He treasured his family and close friends and loved spending time with them.

Surviving to cherish his memory, is his loving wife, Brenda; son Tracy and wife Rose; grandchildren, Shayle Hornaday and Logan Hornaday; brother, Vernon Hornaday; and sister, Patty Glenn of Rushville.

“ THANK YOU HORNADAY FAMILY PAST & PRESENT! I'm writing to express my gratitude to the entire Hornaday extended family. While it would be best for us to be there for Brenda we both live out of town and do not get back to Rushville very often. It is comforting to know that our Sister Brenda and your Sister-in-law, Aunt & Grandmother is in good, no make that great hands. The Hornaday family embraced our sister many years ago and through the years it seems she has become a "Hornaday" more than a Raike, which is wonderful. Without this embrace of her, I would not have had the opportunity to meet so many of you in my early life running with Steve & Randy; John as well as Bruce & Jeff. I first meet so many of you when you were young, Frank, Bobby and so many others many of you when you were young babies/toddlers/kids (Lori, Adam, etc.).

Our ride through this journey of life was made better by all of us having known Terry. Our Mother absolutely loved Terry. Oh sure there were a couple of times/instances where she may have thought different but she came around always being more concerned her daughter was happy. So as Terry settle down (somewhat) as he got older and our stepfather Dalton passed away it was Terry & Brenda who become more responsible for taking care of our Mother. While she may have not known who her own kid's names were later in life, she never forgot Terry's name!

We know Brenda will be surrounded by a loving extended family and with that we can rest easier for her. Many thanks from the bottom of our hearts.

“ I love you Uncle Terry. There is no one that exists more handsome than you!. I loved playing music when you and Uncle Richard were there. I always gave it extra when I saw your faces. You always let me know how proud you were of me, and I will cherish your cheering me on and saying (go Uncis go) forever. Time to rest now Uncle Terry from this troubled world. I will see you again someday, and will anxiously await to hear those words once again, (Hi Uncis). I love you Aunt Brenda. The days are coming to smile again and to remember that handsome man happily!! David Wayne Hornaday
