“ Ash, Please know that I am so sorry for your loss. And I would never pretend to know what you are going through. Just know that you have the most amazing parents to lean on. As difficult as this is for them, they want to help you with your pain. You have been through so much and they have been by your side. And you have so many others who are praying for you. There are never appropriate words for the loss of a child, but I am praying for healing, comfort and grace during this most difficult time for and your family. Much love to all
