“ *Charles and his brother Gerald were my cousins. We had a lot of good times growing up. We even went skinny dipping a few times. I always enjoyed our times together. I have not seen either one in many years as we lived in different states but I will miss both of the boys anyway. Rest in peace and God bless. I was the foreman in crib 5 for quite a number of years and had the pleasure of working with Charlie many times. He was a really good man and a good tradesman too. He'll be missed.
