

Bradley Dora

March 23, 1955 - May 26, 2020

Bradley Alan Dora, 65, a longtime Falmouth area resident, passed away May 26, 2020 at Community South Hospital in Greenwood. Bradley was born March 23, 1955 in Hamilton, Ohio to Maurice & Patricia (Osborn) Dora. He attended Ann Arbor Pioneer High and worked as a mechanic for Sears before moving to the Dora Family farm where he farmed with his father and brother. Bradley had a special bond with nature and the environment. His most special times were with his Belgian Mares, Bonnie and Bell, and spending time with lifelong friends doing anything outside. He could fix most anything and had the tools to do it.

Besides his mother Pat, he is survived by his brother, Michael (Denise) Dora of Rushville and sister Linda (Jerry) Fudge of Falmouth. Bradley had a special place in his heart for his nephews and nieces, Drew (Nicole) Dora, Lee (Esther) Dora, Christina Rennekamp and Kari Rennekamp. He had eight great nieces and nephews. Those of you who knew Bradley well understand his uneasiness anywhere near a funeral home, therefore you are invited to his place for a celebration of his life and refreshments, June 6th from 6:00 PM till 9:00 PM to practice social distancing and visit with family and friends. Burial will be at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.
