“ Deepest condolences to the Lykins family. I had the pleasure of working alongside Brandon at Oxford Financial Group. He was always kind and patient and quick with a funny remark. Brandon was incredibly talented. He was gifted with tremendous attention to detail and made several important contributions to the firm. He will be missed.

“ To the Lykins family, my deepest heartfelt sympathies to all of you during these unimaginable difficult times. Brandon was one of my first friends that I made when I started 1st grade and I will have many fun memories of he and I and the swim team group of friends through high school. I was fortunate to reconnect with him only a few times many years later as adults & I know he will be greatly missed by many.
