“ I remember meeting Brian and his brother Doug in Bloomington. Louann and I took a day trip so she could visit and hang out. At that time Brian was working at a local restaurant. He was a chef and loved the culinary arts. All of us had a blast that night. He had a very kind spirit. I don't think he ever met a stranger. Your light in those that you touched will be missed, but never forgotten. Prayers to all of the family.

“ I did not know Brian, but I knew his parents. I worked with his mom in high school in the dietary dept. at Rush Memorial Hospital. She was always so sweet and I see such a resemblance of her in the pictures that are being shared of Brian. There is no words that anyone can say that will take away the pain from the loss, but I have learned that God can heal them over time. He will always be alive in your hearts. My prayers are with all of you during this hard time.

“ I have so many memories with Brian. He and I had a lot of fun together. It is hard to choose only one. Yogis in Bloomington comes to mind, that's where we met. He was a line cook and I was a waitress. I remember he had the kindest eyes and the best belly laugh. I will always hold those memories close to my heart.
