“ My heart aches for Candys husband, daughter, her sister, Mary Fran and cousin, Beth Clifton....other family members, friends, co-workers, church family and classmates 🎈 So thankful that our class of '74 were able to re-connect at our reunion...we just never realize how precious friends truly are, no matter how close, until we receive these announcements.

We are never ready to let go of a loved one, life here can never be the same.... and for Candy, I know her family would not want her to struggle with so much pain. Thank you Candy, for always being kind and sweet to be around and especially for the brave Christian example you taught all of us to be in the hardest time of life....you will be missed by many my friend. May you rest in peace as you celebrate being with loved ones you have longed for 🎉 Lifting you all in prayer...sending my love 🙏💕
