

Charles W. "Bill" Compton

April 6, 1952 - July 4, 2020

Charles "Bill" William Compton III, 68, passed away at his home in Bloomington on July 4, 2020. Bill was born on April 6, 1952 in Indianapolis to Charles William Compton II and Kathryn Cookson Compton. He graduated from Rushville Consolidated High School in 1970 and from the Indiana University School of Business in 1974. He was a proud member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity at IU, and remained an active alumnus with the organization throughout his life. Bill married his high school and lifelong sweetheart, Christina Brown Compton, in 1974, sharing nearly 40 loving years with her on this earth.

Bill was a commercial loan officer with Irwin Union Bank in Columbus, Indiana, and later with Monroe County Bank in Bloomington, a career spanning decades and in which he garnered countless meaningful relationships. He was a member and past president of the Bloomington Rotary Club, and thoughtfully mentored IU undergraduates at the business school. His unwavering commitment to fairness in all matters earned him universal respect among all who were fortunate to know him.

Bill was an avid IU sports fan, especially basketball, and enjoyed watching and participating in nearly every conceivable sport. He was often seen walking his trusty dog, Rommel, throughout Bloomington, and enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was a truly remarkable man in his ability to find and project positivity in his own and the lives of others.

“ We have such treasured memories of Bill and the family. Bill was totally devoted to his family. Katie and Danny were the same age as our children and we had great family times together. We kept the friendship burning after we moved to Florida, by planning weekend trips to meet up .
