

Charles Richard Willeford

April 23, 1929 - March 17, 2012

Charles Richard Willeford, 82, of Owasso, OK., passed away Saturday, March 17, 2012. Charlie was born April 23, 1929 in Greensburg, IN to Edgar J. and Ruby (Angel) Willeford. He was raised and received his education in Greensburg. Because of the depression era, Charlie quit school to help his family on the farm. On September 2, 1956, he and Patsy Marie White were united in marriage. They made their home in Greensburg, later moving to Columbus, Indiana. Charlie was a man of many talents, having worked as an auto mechanic and farming and later as a machinist at Quality Tool & Die for many years. His wife Patsy passed away on February 19, 1995; and in August of 1998, Charlie moved to Owasso to be near his daughter and family. He was a member of Collinsville Christian Church. Because of his childhood farming, he was an avid gardener and loved the outdoors. In later years, he developed a passion for making clocks and enjoyed going with groups on bus tours and to Gaither concerts. But most important to him was his family and friends. Those that survive include his daughter – Diane Haywood and husband Bob of Owasso; 3 grandchildren – Heather Haywood of Tulsa, Christopher Haywood of Owasso and Sheldon Haywood also of Tulsa. Also surviving are Diane's Aunt Pauline White of St. Paul, Indiana and a cousins Tom and Lori White and family, Rita Grimes and family and Debbie and Kurt Stuecher and family. Besides his wife, Charlie was preceded in death by his parents, a half brother and half sister.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, March 20, 2012 at Mowery Funeral Service,

Owasso from 4pm till 8pm. Funeral services will be at 10:00 am Wednesday, March 21st at the Collinsville Christian Church with son in law – Pastor Bob Haywood officiating. There will be visitation Thursday evening, March 22nd at the Moster Mortuary, Rushville, Indiana from 6pm – 8pm; and graveside services being held at 10 am Friday, March 23rd at the East Hill Cemetery in Rushville. Those who would like to honor Charlie' memory may do so by making contributions to the Collinsville Christian Church, 1825 West Union Place, Collinsville, OK 74021.
