“ Papaw was such a wonderful man and brought so much love and happiness to his family. He was the rock in the Marshall family, and taught us all what a great gift family really is. I will never forget him, and will miss him dearly. So very grateful that he can be reunited with the love of his life in heaven, as I'm sure she was waiting for him with open arms.

“ Well I go back to the mid 60's watching a nice large family grow. Becoming good friends with Fred and the Patterson's in sixth grade. going through scouts and playing ball in the backyard with the big brothers and harriet's laundry drying on the line. Chez always pulling up in the station wagon dressed well. A good man for the community. My best wishes for you Fred. Doug Lower
