“ I can remember the many times I've visited First Southern Baptist in Rushville in years past, Clem would always be there at the piano. When it came to the "Meet and Greet" portion of the service, Clem would always make her way through the congregation, shaking hands, hugging, and making people feel welcome. Such a lovely lady, who's surely going to be missed. I found the following quote which is very appropriate..."Say not in grief that she is no more; but in thankfulness, that she was." To Clem's family I send my love and sympathy. May God send His comforting spirit to you at this time.

She was like a Mother to me as a child. She and Bob took me so many places with Sharon. In 1997 they helped me move to Silver Lake. They both would do anything for anyone. She will be missed by all who knew her. She was q remarkable lady loved by all she ever came in contact with. The whole family is in my prayers. Love you all.

“ Lovely lady with a beautiful smile. I enjoyed many conversations with Clem when she volunteered at the hospital (with her legs in a blanket and a heater under the desk in the winter!) and as she walked around the fair and in the community. A real gem!
