“ You will be missed by all who had the pleasure of getting to know you. You were one of the first friends I made at JustRite. We had the daily devotional book (God Calling...) that we read each day, that first year after we opened. We laughed and cried together, shared a lot of talks together, ranted and vented to one another, but we were able to form a friendship through it all. I am so very thankful to have gotten to know you, and even more blessed to have been able to call you friend. Rest easy, my friend.

“ Oh so many memories! A big part of my childhood was spent at her house. We did chores at my house and hers. We used to make her and my mom sit in the living room when Ashley, Chris, B and I would put on Brittany spears concerts 🤪👉 your welcome Chris 🤪👉 When I was younger we didn't really get along because she snitched me out to my mom for EVERYTHING, probably because we did all of the bad stuff, like lighting Brandon on fire at her house. Then there was that one time B, Ty, and I brought the whole entire sportsman's bar back to her house at closing so like 2am 🤪👉 she ended up pulling Phillip out of the house by his ear 😬 as I got older she became a good friend of mine and we have so many memories together that I will forever hold in my heart ❤️ I know where you were going my friend and will see you again! Until then, always nothing but love ❤️🥹🥹
