“ Connie was one of my besties when we worked together at IUPUI. we shared an office for a while, and she was Colt's fan through and through. I myself hated football and could care less if they or the Bears won that superbowl. But she kept decorating our office with colt's gear. so, I decided to retaliate and start hanging Bears everywhere. I printed little horse heads being devoured by a bear and strung them up from the ceilings. I was GO BEARS all day. She was so mad. it was so much fun. I wore a Bears Jersy to work, and from all of that my son became a devout BEARS fan and still is. We had so much fun. She was my confidant; I told her all of my deepest darkest secrets. I talked to her about Jesus all day and had her repeat "JESUS JESUS JESUS there is Power in the name of Jesus" when she was mad at work. Which was often. I love her so much. The job and years had separated us, but she will always hold a special place in my heart, and I am truly sorry I could not be there to lay her to rest today. I love you my friend. Rest in Peace

*Connie and I worked together many years ago for the Indiana State Parks system. Good memories. I fixed Connie up with Gary, a high school classmate, and the rest is history. A few years ago, Connie sent me a message and thanked me again for introducing her to Gary - that they were still in love so many years later. I hope the family will feel God's loving arms around them in the difficult days ahead. Connie will be missed. Thinking of you, Gary.
