Tim & I have such fond memories of Cora. I loved chatting w/ her where ever we might meet and Tim says she was champion for him as a child a number of times! He particularly remembers she helped him after his sisters hog-tied him & left him in the sun when they were tired of his teasing one summer day, lol. She was quite a woman and will be missed by many.

“ I SOOOOOooo wanted to give your mom (Aunt Cora) a great big HUG for Christmas (in person) and, of course, receive an even bigger one in return...I miss her hugs!! Alas, God had other plans, so will have to hug her family instead...I thank God for Aunt Cora, a pillar in my childhood (AND adulthood), and she will be sorely missed! Love and prayers to you all, and may God give you comfort!! Love, Lonnetta

I am thankful for all the years God let us have you as a sister, mother, friend, helper, encourager, leaning post, rock. I will really miss talking to you and will look forward to seeing you in heaven, I know you are there now with our Lord and have already seen Grandma Kennedy, Katrena, Shannan, and others. You are always a bright place in our hearts.

GONE FROM MY SIGHT

by Henry Van Dyke

*I am standing by the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength,
and I stand and watch
until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sun and sky come down to mingle with each other.
Then someone at my side says, 'There she goes!
Gone where? Gone from my sight – that is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar
as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the places of destination.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.
And just at the moment when someone at my side says,
'There she goes! ',
there are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout :
'Here she comes!'*

*Someone sent me this poem when my mother died a few years ago.
Thought you might enjoy it and get a bit of comfort from it. Wish we could be there this afternoon, but Rod's work schedule won't let us.
You can be sure all of you will be in our thoughts and prayers.*
