“ My most heartfelt condolences to you Aaron and your family. Words are but dust in the wind at times like these. I want to share this little poem with you in the hopes that it brings a little bit of comfort:

*"Shed not for her the bitter tear,
Nor give the heart to vain regret;
'Tis but the body that lies here,
The gem that filled it sparkles yet."*

May the Lord bring you peace and give comfort to your heart.

“ I also knew Darlene from the cottage at Heritage House. She was always high spirited and cheerful in spite of her circumstances. She loved ice cream days and would say, "I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream!" My prayers are with your family.

Darlene was a very special lady. She took such good care of Brett when he was little while I worked. Nate was one of his first playmates. Brian and Jason would ride the bus together. Darlene "mothered" them all with a smile and a hug. We are thinking of you all!
