“ David, Mom loved you so. I remember when I was a kid when you did a TV commercial, and if I remember correctly, it was for a car dealership. She knew what times the commercial would be on, and would rush out of the beauty shop just to see you on TV. She was so proud of you, thought you were so handsome and loved telling her customers about all about her nephew who was on TV. Before mom passed away, she put up photos of you and all your brothers and sisters throughout her house. She loved all of you as if you were her own children. I will always love you too, my dear cousin David.

Love,
