“ Tracey and Charlie, I hated to hear of your Dads passing. Seems like I knew him for ever. I remember you guys living down the road from us. Great neighbors . Your dad was one of a kind . He'd do anything for people. I remember during the blizzard that year he ran up and down the road on a tractor to make sure we was ok. And we set up walkie talkies to communicate. I hadn't seen him in years but we stayed in touch on Facebook. Him and your Mother (Rita) was special people. Love you guys. This breaks my heart but he's in a better place no more pain. And I bet he's telling your Mom some whopper stories. And all about you guys and your

“ I am going to say Tracey and I were 16. I went to a Murray family function with Dave (my other Dad), Charlie and Tracey. I was standing with Dad as he was talking to Papaw Murray. Papaw said, "David I have so many grandchildren I can't remember all of them." Dad said, this one is mine. He always made me feel like I was one of his. I love you and RIP. I am so grateful for all the memories I have with my second family.

“ My beautiful angel. You deserved more than the hand this world dealt you. Fly high and run through the fields running and jumping with the three horns, Pappaw. I hope heaven had an endless tap of rainbow sherbet waiting for you. And someone willing to listen to all your stories... Until you say just kidding when someone doesn't like the ending 😊. How lucky am I to have the best guardian angels on my side. I'll never stop pushing to be the person you believe me to be. I love you more than I could possibly write here. But you knew that. You always did. Later, gator. It'll just be a little while, crocidile, until we meet again.
