“ So sorry to see that my old "runnin" buddy from Sexton Street is gone. So many memories from our grade school years throughout our lives. The last time we seen each other you stopped by our Arthur Street house (I think that was 2009, WOW how the years pass by) when I was there and we had a good conversation. While it had been just an many years (if not longer) since we last spoke, we seemed to pick-up where we left off. Although the years and our lives have caused us not to see each other much over these last 40 years, I want you to know my friend that you were an integral part of my life. From "camping" in the shed to runnin' the back alleys at night, we were inseparable at times. I will always remember you going to the Ozarks with us on vacation and learning to water ski way back in 1971! Rest In Peace and say hello to our other runnin' buddies from "back in the day" who passed on years before... David "Peanut" Workman & Billy Bob "Butch" Beard.
