“ Living next to him and sharing a driveway
Dave was always a nice man. He would let us carry on the tradition of breaking the babies from the baby bottles. We would take all the bottles and put them in his barn for the bunny rabbits. Then the babies were done with the bottles.
He always let all the kids play basketball on his basketball hoop.
He would corral his cows over to the fence for the kids to interact.
He would let some kids sit on his tractor.
I could go on forever with great memories.
To Marilyn and his family, I am so sorry for your loss. Heaven has gained a great man. He will be missed.
