“ Deby and I spent many late nights, early mornings laughing and giggling until Frances told us to go to sleep! We sewed, worked puzzles, crafted. She got me started in Rainbow for Girls in Milroy and became Worthy Mother as I was Worthy Advisor. I could always drop in and say I was spending the night. I didn't have to ask. We traveled to Bedford to see Karen and Grandma, or Karen came to Rushville, and we did crazy things. Deby and Bob and Frances were so influential in my growing up years. Please love on Bob and Frances. Even though we didn't see much of each other any more, I will miss you, Deby.

“ My foudest early memories of my cousin Deby. As a young person we spent time together at our Mamaw Webster's in Bedford. We would swing on the front porch swing singing songs and waiting for the ice cream truck to buy a fudgie for a nickel. Visiting the neighbor girls the Fidlers, listening to music like the Monkeys and the Beatles. And on hot summer days after a rain wade up to our knees in the cool puddles of water on the hot asphalt streets. Love and miss you, Deby! 💕🙏
