“ I've had the honor of marrying Denise's daughter Shawna this past June. I've never imagined I would have a mother in law that I loved as much as her. Her daughter is just like her in so many ways and I am grateful for having the opportunity to be a part of her family. This family has been strong for each other, and I couldn't have been more proud and honored to call Denise my mother in law. My extended family is the best, and she would be very proud of how they have handled everything thus far, I am certain of it.

“ I could write memories all night. Some would bore some of you, some would embarrass some of you and some would just make you laugh. My most favorite would be while we were in high school (last year I think). Going to all the ballgames with my second family. Going to the Durbin, there was a small dinner in New Castle, Denies, Kelvin and myself were at one day, I think I embarrassed Kelvin because I could not stop laughing. The trips to the Indy 500. Then our first apartment. Oh how life has changed. Thoughts and prayers for all the family and friends. Words cannot express my sadness, only knowing she is in a better place and is no longer in pain. Love you all, hugs, hugs
