I remember you and your sisters and mom coming to the Shocky house across the street. We had been friends from childhood on. We played tag and walked over to the hog barn to watch the pigs being loaded on trucks . As we grew up we started taking walks down to the river and going to sock hops at milroy school her Dad was in a band called slow freight. Then we started playing cards at her house with her brother and his friends and Bean (her mom). Then once we turned 18 we got to go to the American Legion To the The band slow freight we had so much fun Dancing then off to the corner restaurant for breakfast. I will never forget you meeting Richard and telling me you were going to merry him. You glowed like an angel. Iam so sorry Richard my heart goes out to you and the entire family. Fly high my dear friend. You will always be in my heart.
