“ To Uncle Bill and Aunt Dianne: We have heavy hearts because we will never be able to mention Uncle Bill without Aunt Dianne. Mentioning the two of you together is ingrained in my memory like the Pledge of Allegiance or a favorite Bible verse.

Some of my favorite memories are the trips to Rushville or the family gatherings here in Alabama at Maw Maw's that Aunt Dianne left her indelible mark upon. Her home was the best kept. Everywhere she went had a touch of class and care that always made you feel welcome and special. She always made me feel that way personally too. My regret is that there aren't more memories (That's a limitation of this life that the Lord promises will not exist later on).

The chemistry between my Uncle Bill and Aunt Dianne was undeniable and worthy of envy for any relationship. You guys were always so funny together and everyone noticed how much you loved each other.

I've witnessed Aunt Dianne's love and support for my family through the years with our own monumental losses and also the good times. That made us love her even more...Now she leaves a void in our hearts that can't be filled. I loved her to pieces. She is a genuinely warm and good soul.

The reality is that we have to figure out how to continue on because the Lord warns us that this world is temporary and we don't need to become attached to it. I look forward to seeing my Aunt Dianne again. We know she is resting peacefully awaiting her reward for her faith.

Uncle Bill, I wish there was more that we could do and say to relieve the pain in your heart. I hope to see you soon..Our condolences and love to you, her boys, and the rest of her family and friends that are feeling this immeasurable loss.

With love and respect,

“ I will miss Dianne as much as I do my Sisters. She had told me a few months ago she loved me like a Sis in a Thinking of you card. Never would I of ever dreamed I would lose her like this. She is my forever friend. I am asking the Holy Spirit to come to Bill and the family and give him Comfort and Peace with her passing. Faith
