“ Very sorry to learn of the great loss of Donna Brewer. I have many memories of Donna and her sister Marcia when my sister, Ginny and I stayed all night at the Smiths. We had so much fun there. Especially playing "Go to the Head of the Class". Good times. Wonderful family. With Love, Marie Sanders Sutphin.

“ Such good, happy memories with Donna while we lived in Arlington! She always had a smile for everyone and always made you a better person after a conversation. We shared many conversations at Arlington Christian Church, Pairs and Spares Class Parties and the Softball Field while watching our Church team play. Darwin, Dawn, Dena and Doug, I am SO sorry for your loss. She sure LOVED her Family more than life. I pray God's Strength to get your through this. No more pain, no more sorrow for Donna and I pray the same for yall. We love you and Kenny says "God Loves You and I love you this morning."
