“ A fond memory to share: Once when Sally and I were in Rushville on a break from I.U., I woke up to see Doris going through my suitcase and pulling out all my dirty clothes. I fell back asleep, and by the time I was up and about, she had washed, dried, folded, and returned everything to my suitcase. My favorite sweater had never smelled so good! I was grateful. Sally and family, I'm so sorry for the loss of your good mom/grandmother.
