

Dorothy M. Redden

March 13, 1920 - October 27, 2018

Dorothy Andrews Redden, 98, Indianapolis, passed away on October 27th surrounded by her loving family. She was born March 13, 1920 in Greenfield to Frank and Nola Kinder Andrews. Preceding her in death besides her parents was her beloved husband, Bobby, sister, Helen Andrews Dismore, Greenfield, niece, Sharon Dismore Lively, Kokomo, nephew, Donald Dismore, Kokomo, and special great-great nephews, Jacob Brokering, Shelbyville, and CPL Scott Studebaker, US Marine Corps, Fortville. She retired from Eli Lilly in 1972. She is survived by her beloved nieces, Meridith (Larry) Brokering, Shelbyville, and Linda Dismore Gressette, Indianapolis. She leaves many special great, great and great nieces and nephews. The most important thing during her generous life was loving her family and friends and helping people who were less fortunate. Private services will be held in Rushville, IN. Arrangements by Moster Mortuary, Rushville. Memorial Contributions may be made to any Humane Society or charity of choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Dorothy M. Redden

January 28, 2023 at 12:19 PM

“ Dorothy was a wonderful lady. She and bob were good friends with my parents. The four of them loved to go to Cincinnati reds games.
John Byrne

John Byrne - November 01, 2018 at 06:31 PM

“ Anita Andrews Anderson lit a candle in memory of Dorothy M. Redden

Anita Andrews Anderson - October 31, 2018 at 05:16 PM

“ Mardeana Redden Suttle lit a candle in memory of Dorothy M. Redden

Mardeana Redden Suttle - October 30, 2018 at 09:40 PM

KW

“ Kimberly Wilkins lit a candle in memory of Dorothy M. Redden

---

Kimberly Wilkins - October 30, 2018 at 03:12 AM