

Dru W. Hunsinger

June 7, 1957 - January 16, 2018

Dru W. Hunsinger of Fairland, Indiana left this earth on January 16, 2018. He was born on June 7, 1957. Dru was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis at the age of 30 and was an inspiration to his family and friends as he battled this disease. Although his body failed him, he used his incredible and witty mind to study cures, tell jokes, keep up with what was going on the lives of others and the world. He was the lover of the outdoors, animals, and the social gatherings. Dru was admired for his blacksmithing and farrier skills. He enjoyed using his computer to communicate through emails and social media and wrote stories about hunting and fishing.

Dru was preceded by his parents, Janet and Stanley Hunsinger, nephew Lincoln Hunsinger and his beloved dog, Larry. He survived by his amazing companion of 32 years Jean Biesiadecki, his mother's companion Frank Gonzales, brothers Scott Hunsinger (companion Nina Muccillo), Randy Hunsinger; sisters Kim Hunsinger Wilkins (Bob), Hollis Hunsinger Brazier (companion Marc Shultz) and Sara Hunsinger; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Dru, we hope you are running and jumping somewhere wonderful and we will forever miss your beautiful spirit and infectious smile. In Dru's memory you may make a donation to the MS Society or Habitat of Humanity. A celebration of his life will be held a later date.

“ Monday's, Wednesday's, and Friday's were always 2 strips of bacon, 2 over easy eggs cooked in the bacon grease, and 1/2 piece of beefsteak toast (he would say he didn't want it, but you would be better off making it anyways because he would change his mind) Tuesday's and Thursday's were either oatmeal with pepper flakes, raisins, and only 1 scoop of whatever ice cream was in the freezer and butter (do not ever let him see you stir it!) or yogurt, fruit, and peanut butter. blackberries were his favorite and had to be part of breakfast everyday. He would talk for hours about his life and the lessons he learned, but not without a few dirty jokes mixed in there somewhere. He loved to be outside all of the time and wanted everyone who cared for him to learn to drive his chair.....even if they were horrible at it.... He hated the way I loved to make his clothes match, but would let me do it anyways. E-mails to his family made him so happy, re-recording voicemails to Holly atleast 5 times because on one us ended up laughing a little too loud. He loved his straw dipped in ol bay for his beers and it would make his face light up if it was remembered without him asking for it. I have so many memories of Dru that I hold so dear to my heart. The life lessons he taught me will never be forgotten. ❤️

“ My life is forever changed without you, Dru. We shared a birthday month and middle child life, we walked to high school together in Delaware until we made new friends. We drove to Florida together, seeing our new home for the first time. We were always each other's buddy, until we made new friends. You are my inspiration and made me try to be a better person every day. When healthy people whine and complain, your face pops in my head and I pretend that i'm listening., but thinking of your strength and will. You fought to the end, just like Mom. You had every reason to complain, but you never did. You had every reason to give up, but you never did. I saw how much you hated all of that hospital business, but when the nurses walked in, you were kind, smiled and thanked them. You had every reason to be hateful, but you weren't. You were so gracious to the ones who were helping you, just like Mom was. I will miss you my sweet, onery brother. My life is forever changed. Love you always, your little sister, Hollyberry
