“ Lora, Dean, and family: it's not supposed to be this way. You two have had enough pain already and can't imagine the anguish that you're going through now. wish there was a do over button, for you. Something... anything ...that Could have conquered his addiction or a magic pill that just fixes you. So many kind words were said and truly felt about your little boy. You must feel proud to have so many people speak so kindly of him and miss him so much! Just know that your old friends still think about you and our hearts break for your loss. Sincerely, Susan Brooks (Layton)

“ So sorry for your loss. I thought a lot of Dustin. Enjoyed visiting with him when he came to get his taxes done and when he attended our annual Gowdy Gathering in September. And remember his brothers and him coming to our house at Halloween. Can't believe he is gone. Prayers for the family.

“ Dean, Lora, Steve and Jon.. there are no words that can be said, all I can say is I'm so so sorry.. we've been in each other's lives since Heather and Jon were in love lol Dut was what 9, 10 yrs old when I met him, typical boy who grew into a handsome, young, respectable man.. I ran into him and some buddies at a bar recently.. I might have embarrassed him a bit by telling him he was still a cute lil sh*t lol my heart just breaks for you all and your families.. big hugs and prayers to you all

“ All 3 brothers call me coach and were always so respectful to me. Always enjoyed being around them. Dustin was a player, not real big in the 7th grade but he played big. When I saw one brother I always thought of the other two. It will always be that way. RIP Brother
