“ Emily was so smart, beautiful, and an amazing best friend. I miss her terribly and i wish i known her intentions or noticed. She was always there for me, making me laugh, smile and making me feel good about myself. I remember her laugh, smile and i wish she didn't have to leave so soon. It's been about 4 years and it still hits me so hard. she was the one always telling me to keep my head up and stay strong. There's not ever a day that goes by that she not in my mind. she inspired so many people, she is missed a lot. you you Emily, you were like a sister to me and i will never forget the significance/ impact you've made on me. But your disappearance has left me in more pieces and i haven't been able to put those pieces back together. I wish you were here so i can tell you things like we use to tell each other. But I've been dark for a long time and it keeps getting worse, and ik you could talk to me in a way no one else could. I;m sorry i never noticed your pain in your eyes. Out of all people i should've been one who seen it because i was also going through my own pain. I hope your happy and i wish you could tell me what heaven is like, if your pain went away, and if there's are and invention there. One day we'll see each other. I'll never forget you.

“ Emily I never really knew you much. My friend always talked about you and said you were a really great person. She was a little girl you babysat all the time.

It is crazy how someone so happy can be so hurt inside. It is crazy how someone can tell other people to stay positive, and always be happy.. when really they are the ones that hurt. They put other before them, and just put their feelings aside not caring. But at the end of the day they are hurt more then ever. I don't know what was making you hurt, but I am sorry. Sorry nobody saw. Sorry that nobody knew. Sorry that nobody could even notice. I hope heaven is good to you.

Is it nice up there? I hope so.

Emily I love you.
