

George Rayburn

November 26, 1927 - August 24, 2014

George Rayburn, 86, a long time Laurel resident, passed away at his home in Laurel on August 24, 2014. He was born November 26, 1927 in Lewis County, KY to James & Ida (Weighorst) Rayburn. He married Mary Alfred on October 26, 1990 & she preceded him in death on September 28, 2001.

George worked construction many years in Indianapolis with Vogel Construction. He and his brothers later owned & operated Rayburns Saw Mill in Laurel & he retired from the saw mill in 2003.

He is survived by his daughters, Debbie Yeager & husband Chuck of Florida, Kim Plummer & husband Mark of KY & Vickie Rayburn & companion Harold Gilliam of KY, step sons, Terry & wife Cindy Meyers of Brookville and John Meyers of Laurel, a step daughter, Tracy Bost of OH., a brother, Bertram Rayburn & wife Edna of Laurel, a sister, Lettie Riley of Mansfield, OH, grandchildren, Coty Holland, Similee Lewis & Bo Rayburn & great grandchildren, Ace & Nate Holland. George was preceded in death by his parents, wife, brothers, Clyde, Enoch, Garland, James & Harold, sisters, Mary & Carrie, a step son, Randy Meyers and a step daughter, Mary Loretta Davidson.

Services will be held at 1 PM Wednesday, August 27, 2014 at Moster Mortuary, Rushville, where friends may visit from 11:30 AM until time of service. Burial will be in the Everton Cemetery & Pastor Charles "Bill" Nolty will preside.

Tribute Wall

“ George Rayburn

January 28, 2023 at 12:19 PM

“ George was a great guy. sitting around and trowing back a few cold ones and shooting the bull was great time for me with him..I will never be able to go thru laurel without thinking of George and Mary...He will be missed

kevin shiner - August 27, 2014 at 07:43 AM