“ Gordon Hall and his beautiful wife, Ruth Ann, have been our friends for over 40 years. Gordon let Paul help him farm when we were young parents. The two of them got very close over the years, pulling pranks on one another, both serving as elders in our church, and just supporting and loving one another. Gordon was such a godly man full of wisdom and love for others. He will be so sadly missed by his family, his friends, his church, and his community. We know where he is right now, and that gives us such joy. Ben probably met him at the gate with a big hug. Gordon and Bob Morgan are probably telling Jesus how farming has changed since the days of scattering the seeds when He walked on the earth. We send our love to Gordon's wife and our dear friend, Ruth Ann, and all of her children and grandchildren who will miss this wonderful man so much.
