“ Was thinking of you today. Just wanted to tell you that you are still so missed. Sometimes I look at our prom picture, and I just smile. All the cruises in your white cutlass. Just know you are not forgotten and will never be.

“ Greg was such a great guy and friend back in the day when we were all younger. I think of you often, and wish things could have been different for you. I miss our laughs and talks just about everything and nothing. Till we meet again. Love, Tasha
