“ I thoroughly enjoyed working with you at Highland High School. My favorite memory is the time I entered your classroom to observe one of my students. This student was hard of hearing and had a very low self-concept. You were working with her and others in a small group. The smile and glow on her face when you praised her is imprinted in my memory forever. In three years this student had never smiled. You had the gift of pulling the strengths out of all students. You combined many of our special education students in your productions. You gave all kids a chance and that has made a world of difference!

You will be truly missed!

Greg, I will miss your sweet heart and wicked sense of humor. You could always make me laugh. Thst was your gift. We talked of getting together this Summer. You, no doubt, would have made a tasteless joke about my losing a limb...but still having a great rack. I would have said "good grief Greg", but I would have laughed and genuinely been uplifted by your friendship and silliness. Sleep easy my friend. ❤️

“Flash”, “Simps” is what Stick Daddy calls him. Sometimes called him “Simsy”. Great memory I have in my head, is watching Colts go to Superbow! I thank God above for being able to be part of your life. I always loved your hair. Flight high great spirit. You will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace dear friend. ☀️
