

Harold V. Johnting

July 22, 1928 - June 4, 2013

Harold V. Johnting, 84, a life long resident of Rushville, passed away Tuesday, June 4, 2013 in Indianapolis. He was born July 22, 1928 in Rushville to Vernon Johnting & Mary Blanche (Elder) Feldmaier. He married Frieda Herbert on August 23, 1968 and she survives.

Harold served in the US Navy for 20 years, retiring as an E6. He served on the James C. Owens and the Rodman. He was enlisted during both WW2 & the Korean War. Harold was stationed in many different location overseas throughout his enlistment. After retiring from the Navy, Harold returned to Rushville & worked many years as a salesman & driver for Craven Frozen Foods. Harold was a member of the American Legion Post #150 & the former Rushville VFW.

Survivors include his wife, Frieda, of Rushville, sons, Michael H. & wife Angela Johnting of Peru, IN and Scott A. Johnting of Rushville, grandchildren, Austin Scott & Brendan Johnting and Rheannon Graham Hipsher and great grandchildren, Kelsie & Katie Hipsher. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Services will be held at 10 AM Saturday, June 8 at Moster Mortuary, Rushville. Friends are welcome to visit at the mortuary from 5-8 PM on Friday evening, June 7. Burial will be in the Calvary Cemetery. Military graveside rites will be provided by the Rush County Veteran's Honor Guard.

Tribute Wall

“ Harold V. Johnting

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:19 PM

“ *Kroger Pharmacy lit a candle in memory of
Harold V. Johnting*

---

Kroger Pharmacy - June 05, 2013 at 07:23 PM