“ Bud was my trusted motorcycle mechanic for many years. He was not only a great bike "fixer," he was a really nice guy and I enjoyed all my many visits to his shop. He liked to show me his massive collection of old bikes, outboard motors and tractors. There was always a school bus parked nearby. When that shop closed I followed the Vails to their new shop in Brookville and used their services until I had to quit riding at age 83. Rest in peace, Bud!
