“ I met Steve in 1970 at his motorcycle shop S & S Choppers. We quickly became close friends due to our mutual interest in Harley Davidsons, we worked on bikes together, I crewed on his drag racing motorcycles, and we worked together many years at RSR Corp. I will miss you but I have many, many fond memories of time we spent together. RIP my friend, and let's go for a motorcycle ride when I see you again.- Mike Meloy

“ How do you share just one memory for one who lived life his own unique way? Steve knew who he was and never doubted any path he chose to take. He knew life was for living, not regrets...and live it he did. The person he respected and admired most was his dad; my memory to share is how he said recently that what he strived to do most in life was to make his dad proud. He did that in spades! Rest well, Steve. You're with your dad now and feeling his love enfold you. But we'll always miss you until we, too, see you again. —Karen Wainscott Powell
