

James P. "Jimbo" Craven

July 7, 1963 - October 22, 2018

James P. "Jimbo" Craven, 55, a Rushville native, passed away October 22, 2018 in Indianapolis where he had lived for many years. Jim was born July 7, 1963 in Rushville to Curtis L. & Barbara (McCoy) Craven. He was a 1982 graduate of Rushville Consolidated High School. Jim was a US Army Veteran. He married Kimberly (Carey) on November 25, 2016.

Jim had driven for United Courier, a courier service for Duke Energy, the last several years. He was a former member of St. Mary Catholic Church in Rushville.

He is survived by his wife, Kimberly Craven of Avon, his mother, Barbara Craven of Rushville, his son, Josh (Jessika) Craven of Newburgh, IN., step-daughters, Hannah Glenn of Madison, WI and Chelsea Glenn of Kokomo, brothers, Richard (Lynne) Craven of Rushville, William (Teresa) Craven of Greenfield, Steven (Jen) Craven of Burton, MI, a sister, Susan (Robert) Walker of Greenfield and grandsons, Ashton, Kaleb, Brayden & Grayson Craven. Jim was preceded in death by his father, a brother, David and a stillborn daughter, Brandi Cordray.

Services will be held at 11 AM Monday, October 29, 2018 in Moster Mortuary, Rushville. Friends are welcome to visit the mortuary on Sunday, October 28 from 2-6 PM. A Rosary will be recited Sunday afternoon around 1:30 PM.

Burial will be in the Calvary Cemetery in Rushville.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Scleroderma Foundation-300 Rosewood Dr. , Suite 105, Danvers, MA. 01923.

I was so glad that Jimbo made it to the 35th Reunion. It took a lot of strength to make the effort given his condition. It was so nice to see him and his wife one last time. He will be missed.

Jimbo was such a good guy, a Godly fellow, with genuine concern and affection for all his friends and acquaintances. The world was a better place when he was in it. He will be sorely missed. Love you, brotherman. Rest in Peace.
