“ Jim was welcome in Texas and became a golfing buddy after Jeff introduced us years ago. My sincere condolences to Jeff and family for their loss. I was able to show Jim the golf course where I "grew up" in Ft. Worth and we had some great competitive rounds. He was a devoted father and grandfather and is surely the reason Jeff became such a fine son. I will miss him and treasure the times he and I shared together.

“ I worked with Jim for many years at RCNB (then Norwest, Wells Fargo) and Midwest Ag Finance. He was a wonderful co-worker & friend. He taught me very early on in my career to put my personal life and family before my job. We shared many Tuna sandwiches from Subway at lunch while working crossword puzzles, Jumbles & crypto quips. He was the master at these. Jim will be missed! Rest In Peace my friend!

“ Jim always told me how much he liked our family's Christmas letter every year and how he would save them to re-read throughout the year. He's the main reason they continued throughout the years! We will miss you Uncle Jim!
