“ Heartfelt condolences to the Warrick family. I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise - please find comfort by turning to the ultimate source of strength, Almighty God. He can soothe your hearts and give you peace beyond all understanding to help you cope. Others may not know the extent of your emotional pain, but God does, because he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7) Therefore, you can trust him to heal your broken hearts. Jane was the sweetest, most gentle lady that handled every situation with professionalism and grace.

She very seldom raised her voice or got upset from customer outrageous requests. She had the most beautiful smile and the willing spirit to help anyone. A loving lady that I will truly miss but her legacy will live on. She is being greeted by the ones that left ahead of her and will be happy to see that great personality and loving spirit. I would like to thank the family especially Amber for sharing this great lady with the VA community throughout the years – we are all better for her acquaintance. You have my condolences and my prayers.

Love,

General

“ I met Jane on her first day at the VA. She couldn't wait to get started, so she could contribute to her new organization. Jane enjoyed helping customers/new staff navigate the VA, and solve their IT problems. Jane was dedicated to doing the job right the first time.

We received an email from Jane right after she retired in October 2016 that expresses how she felt about being a part of the VA family, her words: "It seems like I have been retired for a long time since it's been so long since I have worked. I do miss coming in and socializing and finding out what big thing has happened each day. It was usually fun to be around all of you. Thanks for all the memories and the friendships. I wish everyone good luck in the rest of your careers, one day you will make it to retirement too."

Jane was an encourager, who despite the challenges she was facing, chose to bless us with her inspiring words and hope for our own futures. Jane appreciated the people she shared her life with at VA and it showed, even in her last email to us. Jane was a class act and will continue to be missed, but never forgotten.

“ Most people don't know it, but Jane liked to pole dancer – well at least we laughed about it many times. She had a unique ability to find humor in any situation. Life threw Jane many curve balls, but she took each one in stride. Most would have become bitter and no one would have blamed her if she had, but not Jane. She never let the circumstances get her down. A quick wit, grace, and kindness were her reply. She touched my life. Go rest high on the mountain and dwell in a well-earned peace.

“ Jane was amazing. She made me feel like part of the family. The world is a darker place without her in it.
