

Jason D. Jackson

June 18, 1969 - August 31, 2024

Jason D. Jackson, 55 of Carthage passed away unexpectedly August 31, 2024. He was born June 18, 1969 in Greenfield, IN to the late Vernon and Jo Ann (Wilson) Jackson. He was a 1987 graduate of Knightstown High School. Jason worked at Freudenburg in Morristown as a machinist for several years. He was a beloved father to Heather (Jackson) Schaeffer. Jason's greatest pride and joy came from his first grandson, Jack Elliott, who brought great joy to his life.

He was an avid adventurer, cherishing kayaking and enjoying the camaraderie of shooting darts at Zippers Bar. Jason had a special love for singing karaoke and could often be found enjoying a cold Bud Light. Sports held a special place in his heart, and he was a fervent fan of all athletic endeavors with a particular fondness for IU Basketball.

Jason is survived by his biological mother, Verna Jackson, daughter Heather (Ronnie) Schaeffer and grandson Jack Elliott - all of Carthage.

Jason is preceded in death by his parents, brother, Victor L. Jackson and infant son.

A small private ceremony will be held in memory of Jason. Jason's warmth and humor will be deeply missed by his family and friends alike. His legacy will continue to resonate with all who knew him.

“ I have many karaoke memories with Jason and many other memories as we grew up together in Carthage. Jason was a good man. Misunderstood by many but not me.. We always hugged each other when we would see each other... He was my ALLEN JACKSON as he would sing his songs at karaoke.. Lots of fun times.. He will be dearly missed! Go fly high Jason and I know you will be singing 🎵 .. Love ya always❤️ Tess

“ Jason is one of the nicest guys at work. There was not a day that went by that he went without making you laugh. He would dance down the aisle in our department. He did love music. Just say funny stuff to you. Things won't be the same without Jason! You will always be in my thoughts.❤️🙏
