“ I’m sorry this is a very belated message but I wanted to send my condolences to the family. Diana was my father’s dental receptionist, Dr. Oljace in Greensburg Indiana. My sister just found information on Facebook and we wanted to reach out to that. She was a very special lady teach one of my family members.
Sincerely, Kim Oljace Yentes

“ I very much loved that sweet woman. She was so caring and loved to talk and laugh with everyone. I loved her as our secretary at Milroy, she didn't hesitate to do anything she could to help you. I'll always cherish my time at Milroy with her.

“ My Aunt Diane was always smiling and laughing. And she always brought delicious food and desserts when we visited. We have always looked forward to our visits, as a kid and later as an adult on our trips to Indiana. My Aunt Diane was so caring and fun. She will be terribly missed. But I know she is no longer hurting, because she is in God's arms, surrounded by his love. Our love, thoughts and prayers for the family as you say goodbye.
