“ My beautiful sister is now in heaven with her loved ones and will suffer no more. Our Heavenly Father is taking care of her and we are all going to miss her terribly, but know that she is no longer suffering and I love her so much. Save me a space Sis, until we meet again.

“When I had the honor of giving Louie's eulogy in May 2017, I asked members of his family what they thought he would have wanted me to say at his funeral and they said, “He married wisely.” Of course, his bride Jeannette blushed at that response, but yes, I agree... he did just that.

I always loved visiting Louie and Jeannette in their home. My intention was to bless them but, invariably, I felt like I was the one who ended up getting blessed! Typically, Jeannette and I would chat away while Louie would patiently sit there, taking it all in.

During our visits I would talk with them about heaven and what it would be like there. This precious couple had absolutely no doubt about their eternal salvation. They knew that, for each of them, death would be the ultimate act of healing.

Their love story lasted for 60 years on planet Earth, and now they are together again along with all their loved ones who, like them, gave their hearts to Christ.

Jeannette was such a student of God's Word and truly loved her Lord, her family, and others so deeply.

“Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.” Psalm 116:15 (NIV)
