“ I first met The Grimace through my fraternity pledge brother Matt Kirkpatrick in 1988. Little did I know then he would become my very best friend in the world, having seen close to 100 concerts/shows together throughout the years with his trademark whistling. He never met a stranger, and he brought so many people together who are now lifelong friends. Always had a story to tell. A very giving person who never expected anything in return. One of a kind. One of God’s very, very special creations. The world is a much lesser place without him. I love you brother, and I will miss you more than anyone can possibly imagine. (My Buddy) Bob Fry

“ I learned how to whistle with my fingers later in life.I was so proud and thinking I was something.Then I met Grimace. He was the master whistler. A group of us went to a concert where I got to witness his craft. I was in awe, blown away! I also got to meet David, the nicest guy!
-Mr & Mrs Truster, Thank you for raising 2 of the coolest men that I had the fortune of meeting. I cherish those memories.
-I LOVE YOU BRENDA-
