

Jessie Lynn Fecher

November 22, 1961 - March 10, 2025

Jessie Lynn Fecher, 63, a longtime Rushville resident, passed away surrounded by family on Monday, March 10, 2025. She was born November 22, 1961, in Kentucky to the late Simon and Pauline (Snapp) Neeley. Jessie was a 1980 graduate of Rushville Consolidation High School. She married Marion Fecher on November 24, 1984, and he survives.

Jessie worked in nursing, as a school aide, Hallmark merchandiser, bonus mom to many, but her favorite, most proud job was being a devoted mother and grandmother. She loved Jesus with all her heart.

Jessie loved spending time with her family and fur babies. She enjoyed cooking, listening to music, bird watching, sitting outside chatting with her husband, camping, spending time on the water, watching her Colts games, cuddling on the couch with her dog Cinnamon and cat Penny, and playing with her grandchildren. She loved watching her children and grandchildren grow and laugh.

In addition to her husband, Marion, she is survived by daughter, Shawna Call (Joel) of Greenfield, sons, Adam Fecher and Tanner Fecher, both of Rushville; brothers Dan Neeley and Simon Neeley, both of Rushville. She will also be missed by granddaughters, Raina and Yelena; nephew, Eric Neeley of Rushville, and many other nieces and nephews across the country.

Jessie is preceded in death by her parents and sister, Carolyn Neeley.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ *I remember her fondly from out school days.
Sincerest condolences!* ”

Janet Safewright Bolan - June 24, 2025 at 08:16 AM