

Joan Locke Hendricks

October 25, 1923 - January 4, 2014

Joan (Locke) Hendricks, 90 years young, left this life on January 4, 2014. Survivors include her husband (Roy) Glen Hendricks; daughters Janice (Larry) Dimick and Susan (Jim) Nogee; Dominican daughter Graciela (Leandro) Montes; 4 grandchildren – Paul Dimick, Lynn (Bret) Wilson, Matthew (Amanda) Nogee, and Sarah Nogee; and 2 great-grandchildren, Haley and Braylon Wilson. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Paul Locke and brother Robert Parr.

Joan was born on October 25, 1923 to Carl and Mildred Parr. She graduated from Shortridge High School in 1941, and attended Butler University where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She went on to attend St. Luke's in Chicago where she obtained training to be an x-ray technician. She was married to Paul Locke on June 8, 1947, and was married for 43 years before Paul succumbed to cancer on August 6, 1990. On January 13, 1996, she was united in marriage to (Roy) Glen Hendricks.

Joan was a long standing member of Broadway United Methodist Church and later transferred her membership to St. Luke's United Methodist Church to be closer to home.

The family would like to thank St. Vincent's Hospice Care, her personal Hospice nurse Alicia Smith, and Senior Home Companions for their comfort and care during these past days and weeks.

Joan will long be remembered for her spunky attitude, her youthful heart, and her desire to "live life." A Celebration Of Life will be held on Wednesday, January 8, at 1:00 pm at Broadway United Methodist Church. Visitation will precede the service at 11:00 am. Memorials may be given to St. Vincent's Hospice Care.
