

Joanne C. Miller

October 16, 1925 - March 9, 2025

Joanne C. Miller, 99 of Rushville, passed away March 9, 2025 in Columbus. She was born October 16, 1925 in Carthage to the late Dwight J. and Marjorie (Rutherford) Coffin. Joanne was a 1941 graduate of Rushville High School. She married John Clark Miller on September 5, 1942 and he preceded her in death on September 13, 1994. Joanne was a devoted wife and mother to her family. She did everything from cooking from scratch to making dresses for her daughters. Joanne was a co-founder of Voice for Christ.

Joanne is survived by her children, James "Rookie" Miller of Rushville, Mark "Springy" Miller of Rushville, Cynthia Fincher of Greenfield, Carolyn Cameron of Rushville, Sara (Greg) Mosley of Rushville, and Jean (Scott) Kopf of Florida. She will also be missed by her 20 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren and 12 great-great grandchildren.

Joanne is preceded in death by her parents, husband and sons, Jared Miller, Thomas Miller and David Miller.

Graveside Services will be held Thursday, March 13, 2025 at 11:30 AM in East Hill Cemetery with Pastor Darryl Cooper presiding. In lieu of flowers, donations will go toward Joanne's funeral expenses at Moster Mortuary.

“ Mrs. Miller was a back door neighbor of my family many years ago. Kids all around our ages and neighborhood friends. During the early Farmers Markets she had homemade bread. She will be missed by many. Thinking of the family and sending my heartfelt condolences.

“ I was a friend of Sara's and met Joanne when I was in high school. She was such a sweet soul! Had some fond memories of her. I remember Joanne's beautiful smile and always in the kitchen cooking. Dinner was always at 6pm. She always welcomed me with open arms anytime I visited her home. Sending peace and comfort to her family during this difficult time.
