“ I remember Aunt Kathleen, and a time some other boys and I were playing flag football in Arlington right next to her house. She came walking, angrily, right toward us, turned around and went right back into the house. In a few seconds here she came again and was walking directly towards me. I thought I was in big trouble for something. She put both arms around my neck and said "Thanks for letting Johnny play". Initially, she thought he was being left out, but Uncle Bob corrected her in the house, just in time. Probably saved me from a spanking?
