“ Larry Gordon, my forever friend. I don't remember a minute of my life, without Larry Gordon being part of it. I miss him already. He always greeted everyone with a big mischievous smile and comments. He always hugged me to make me feel better if I was upset, laughed with me, yelled at me if I was doing something that wasn't good for me. He helped with caring for my family when mother and daddy had their awful wreck, many years ago. He was a gigantic man both physically and how he was able to be part of our family. Larry knew everyone in Rush County and literally everyone he met. He was a loving family man and loving friend. We always laughed when I introduced him as "my other brother Larry." Please give Hugh and Ruby a hug when you catch up with them in heaven. Love you and goodbye my forever friend. Linda Mull Reed

“ One of the first characters I met in Rush County. His devotion to “special kids” was incredible. When I think of him, I see him standing there in his overalls spinning a tall tale. Am incredible man!
