“ Larry was sooo gorgeous in high school. Seemed all the women wanted to be his girl. I told him that the last time I saw him a couple of years ago and he just laughed.

It's sad as we grow older we grow apart and then we wish we would have taken a minute to see each other. I have a so many good childhood memories of Larry hanging out in mom's back yard but my very favorite is when he would set on dad's lap and say I love you uncle paul. Then just laugh . That was priceless . Now he can grab Harold and go fishing. We will miss you buddy. RIP.

“ Can't believe he is gone he coached me for two years when I was younger and I remember him telling me every game, "c'mon bell you run like a baby deer" . In addition to him being a great coach he was also a close family friend and it's hard knowing I won't be able to pop in anymore 😞
